LOST: AN HONEST PROMISED LAND

The idea of an Honest Promised Land was sacrificed since the earliest days of the Levitical Priesthood because “clergy” have lazily elevated authority over honesty, rarely ever being diligent enough to truthfully challenge the coveting and stealing done by the means of “government.” This reflects the thread of collusion between religion and government that has deceitfully run through Judeo-Christianity, sacrificing an Honest Promised Land because “rulers” in both religion and government have together often sought adulation, praise, and power by the easiest means available.

Religious officials have used religion to broadly leverage that “faith accepts tyrannies” rather than that “faith uses honesty to oppose tyrannies.” Rulers have returned favor through providing bribing benefits to “religion” and for “religious officials.” By this draconian arrangement, tyrannies dominate Judeo-Christianity - even making Egypt’s Pharaohs to pale in comparison.

It is high time to remove religion's tax-exempt status and other special benefits it receives from government. Jesus had none.

It is the only way to make religion finally be honest about government's coveting and stealing for the sake of an Honest Promised Land.

Unlike most "ministries," Jesus' ministry paid taxes so it would not appear that he was protecting himself by being in cahoots with government authority. Be like Jesus!

THE GIST

Legions of Judeo-Christian
Despots Owe Much to Judeo-Christian
“Religious Officials.”

Yes, the Bible has many attractive features like wisdom, spellbinding drama, accurate history, and eternal Promises because of Jesus's Passion on the Cross. However, both the Bible and Judeo-Christian "ministry" have been plagued with a seemingly everlasting inability to address and deal with the coveting and stealing that "rulers" have done by means of "government" being in cahoots with "religion."

The Commandments against coveting, stealing, and the bearing of false witness (i.e. the Commandments against dishonesty) are especially important because they detail the temporal character of honesty that God meant for the "Promised Land" to have, a character that was intended to eventually convey the Gospel in the most vibrant way by building honesty upon honesty.

Sadly, the conveyance of the Gospel's message has often been made ineffective by "ministry" dishonestly elevating a paradigm of authority-over-honesty, a paradigm that has often even determined it proper to use tyrannical force to expand the reigns of both Judeo-Christian "rulers" and their cooperative Judeo-Christian "religious officials."

Oh how the Gospel message and the "Promised Land" of Judeo-Christianity have been sabotaged by "religion" that aids "rulers" in both government and religion to slyly seek adulation, praise, and power by the easiest means available!

THE GIST

THE GIST Page 10

Most everyone has generally agreed that the Commandments against coveting, stealing, and the bearing of false witness are clear. They have been clear though for the little observed but very key reason that these Commandments came about BEFORE the Levites were able to cement their “authority” as Israel’s official and authoritative “Priesthood,” a “Priesthood” which would eventually both choose and edit many Scriptures to their liking of authority-over-honesty by slyly embellishing and elevating “authority.”

It is important to keep the Levites’ cunning in mind for two reasons. First, the Levites were who originally planted and wove many “traditions” into both Scripture and “ministry.” “Traditions” of “ministry” have slyly embellished and elevated “authority” while also kicking-to-the-curb, as much as possible, any application of the Commandments against coveting, stealing, and the bearing of false witness to “religion” and “government” acting together in cahoots as “Establishment.” Secondly, the Levites were previously cursed for their evil and cruelty, as detailed in Genesis 49:5-7. The Levites’ evil and cruel nature seems to have been a feature that went with them into the “Priesthood” and has since made way for much of the despotism that has flourished throughout Judeo-Christianity.

Like the Levites, today’s “religious officials” short circuit honesty by embellishing the authority of both government and themselves. They then call it “ministry.”

It is their prime means of seeking adulation, praise, and power by the easiest means available.

THE GIST

Indeed, prophets have been repeatedly called upon to “fix” what the Levites have deceitfully sown into the Bible and practically all “ministry.” Not even events like the Magna Carta, the Reformation, and the American Revolution have effectively countered the Levites’ deceitful “authority-over-honesty” paradigm which still reigns through Scripture and “ministry” to infect modern “church.”

It is no wonder that Jesus had no “religious officials” in his close circles! For the sake of an Honest Promised Land that seeks first to place honesty into both its government and religion as means to then most vibrantly begin telling the Gospel message, be like Jesus!

To “those who have ears to hear,” the Bible itself needs a great reexamination to rid it of the “authority-over-honesty” paradigm which could only have been planted by the “traditions” of sly “religious officials.”

POKER REVEALS BETTER THAN THE BIBLE! THANK SAGE ATHEISTS!

Starting with his early studies of the card game poker, Dr. Frank R. Wallace has arguably analyzed and extrapolated better on the subject of “honesty” in his publications than what the Bible and “ministry” have ever done in comparison. Add then to Wallace’s writings other notably famous and legendary works by both George Orwell and Ayn Rand. The startling result is arriving to see the Bible as containing a Levitical scheme which has been repeatedly played as a winning hand of poker by “rulers” in both religion and government who have colluded as “Establishment” ever since the epic Books of Exodus and Numbers.

Frank R. Wallace’s books analyze the intricate “whys” and “hows” of “coveting, stealing, and bearing of false witness” better than “ministry” has ever been willing.

THE GIST

THE GIST Page 12

"The Proof is in the Pudding."

Do not discount the continued fallout into present-day "ministry" of (1) the curse that fell upon the Levites in Genesis 49:5-7 or (2) the Levites remaining evil and slyly cruel as a "Priesthood." Not even more modern events like the Magna Carta, the Reformation, and the American Revolution have effectively countered the Levites' deceitful "authority-over-honesty" paradigm which still reigns through Scripture and "ministry" to infect modern "church." Levitically inspired "traditions" that place "religion" and its "officials" as spiritual hubs of societal "Establishment" still produce much sly collusion between religion and government.

Beware and make mindful note. It has been "religious officials" who have had eons of time to "tweak" the Bible, starting with the Levites and their impacts on the Old Testament as well as the nearly three centuries that lead up to the New Testament. Beginning with the Levites, "religious officials" have been cunning, unprincipled, and slyly hypocritical in their Orwellian "ministries" that have treacherously elevated authority-over-honesty to support "legions" of oppression.

Jesus had no religious officials in his close circles. The sordid history of "religious officials" is likely his reason, as their deceits of colluding with despots must have been readily obvious to the Lord, especially since the Trinity had already sent so many prophets to fix the often-lacking qualities of the "Priesthood."

The Levitical Curse

Genesis 49:5-7 (NKJV)

⁵ “Simeon and Levi are brothers; Instruments of cruelty are in their dwelling place.

⁶ Let not my soul enter their council;
Let not my honor be united to their assembly;
For in their anger they slew a man,
And in their self-will they hamstrung an ox.

⁷ Cursed be their anger, for it is fierce;
And their wrath, for it is cruel!
I will divide them in Jacob
And scatter them in Israel.

Behold here the root of Levitical cruelty that has used “ministries” to aid, protect, and spread “Establishment” tyrannies ever since the Exodus by leveraging religion to embellish and impose a sneaky religious paradigm of “authority-over-honesty.” Religion and government have consequently been notorious platforms for officials wishing to covet and steal as easily as possible so as to assist them in seeking adulation, praise, and power.

Why Do People Avoid “Being-Like-Jesus” as He Was in Matthew Chapter 23?

"It seems that many have completely missed Matthew 23. Are we not supposed to look at those same things concerning religious officials now? Is Matthew 23 where we draw the line and stop following Jesus? Maybe the reason "Church" has become so irrelevant, weak, and powerless is because its members do not do what Jesus did. Instead, "Church" has become not much more than a cash cow for its officials. Seriously! Now is the time to ask yourself more than ever, 'What would Jesus do?'" - Gary Williams*

Read Matthew 23 on your own as it

Religious officials have hardly changed since the Exodus. Fundamentally, perhaps more than ever, the words of Jesus from Matthew 23 are applicable to today’s religious officials. An HONEST PROMISED LAND cannot be left up to just the “authority” of religious and government “officials.” It is a huge lesson shown by the Bible and church history.

Thank Goodness for John 7:24

Would Jesus have caused people to think deeply about many things but expect them to not analyze their “authorities” with the brains that God gave to them? Ahh, NO!

Given the long line of despots in “Judeo-Christian” history, the various biblical admonitions about “obeying authority” need to be taken with “a grain of salt.” No better “grain of salt” likely exists for this purpose than John 7:24 which says “Do not judge according to appearance, but judge with righteous judgment (NKJV).”

Consequently, given John 7:24, the various Biblical admonitions about “obeying authority” should be seen, at best, as hopeful exuberances about “authorities” or, at worst, reflections of plots for appeasing the “Establishment” authorities of the times they were written. Either way, as the author of CLERGY SECRETS, I’m just saying that it is possible to embrace Jesus for salvation but to also judge “Establishment Authority” with your own brains, especially when such “authority” has been trying to act more like the Pharaohs of Egypt. – Warren Vitcenda

With cunning intentions of seeking adulation, praise, and power by the easiest means available, modern religious officials feign “caring” and operate as if Jesus died so that Orwellian “Establishment” could reign through both religion and government being used to covet & steal.

Much more often than not, “RELIGIOUS OFFICIALS” support individual rights only so long as their ability to from “Establishment” with government is not impeded. This explains their lack of both doctrine and preaching on the liberty gained from the Exodus – liberty that should foil slavery by exposing cunning tyrannies along and the despots that use them for coveting and stealing.

The Bible's Big Themes

One good, one bad.

1) Jesus' Passion (Good)

2) A Lost Honest Promised Land due to legions of "officials" in religion and government who have sought to slyly covet, steal, and seek adulation, praise, and power as easily as possible. (Bad)

"Church" often highlights sacrifice and forgiveness but then frames them inside of stressing "authority" which keeps people off-balance from honestly inspecting the Orwellian coveting & stealing done against them by religion and government.

THE GIST

THE GIST Page 18

The favoring of authority-over-honesty in both the Bible and “ministries” highly suggests that a sly pattern of “compiling” and “tweaking” the Bible has been traditionally maintained by religious officials.

The Levites had hundreds of years to impact the Bible as they wanted. Decades and even centuries allowed “religious officials” time to slyly massage the New Testament’s contents and doctrines as well, especially concerning “authority” while largely leaving the subject of honesty in the dust.

Regardless of the hordes of coveting and stealing that governments (kings, judges, bureaucrats, and even republics) have done, religious officials have sought to make government be their benefactors as part of their own seeking of adulation, praise, and power.

QUESTION EVEN PAUL!

While the Apostle Paul correctly assessed “salvation,” his trust for and embellishing of authority, especially in Romans, suggests that he was quite in favor of continuing the vile Levitical tradition of favoring authority-over-honesty - even dishonest authority. Beginning with the Roman Empire, many deceitful “governments” have been protected by Paul’s words while Orwellian dishonesties have often run wild!

THE GIST

THE GIST Page 19

“Religion” Has Stealthily
Increased Tyranny by slyly
*“Wanting to Help People.”

"Government" has given benefits such as tax-exempt status and even stipends to religion because religion ostensibly "helps" people. However, in an ironic twist that is virtually demonic, lazily minded "religious officials" have repeatedly increased support for government to "take care of people" which has frequently included their calls for increasing the size of government force for the funding of altruistic goals, force that verges into coveting and stealing. "Religion," by becoming increasingly trapped by religious officials seeking adulation, praise, and power as easily as possible, becomes a cunning tool of Orwellian "authority."

By government being their benefactors, religious officials must often surely feel well insulated by government. Religious officials being loyal civil marriage officiants for government also cements close loyalties between religion and government. Thus, religious officials lean evermore toward wanting everyone "managed" by the government. Subduing honesty about government's diabolical coveting and stealing has been a cunningly leveraged "ministry."

"MINISTRY" BECOMES AN EVER-CREEPING EXPANSION OF TYRANNY WHEN IT IS IN CAHOOTS WITH GOVERNMENT.
SUCH HAS BEEN JUDEO-CHRISTIANITY!

THE GIST

The Bible's Diabolical Element

Church/religion says that people are “created in the image of God” but then religious officials endeavor to advocate that people ignore the coveting and stealing done by “rulers.” Would GOD/Jesus really ever agree to that “being in the image of God?”

“Render unto Caesar” as said in Matthew 22:21 if you feel you must, but do not render your hearts like pathetic clergy have done with their silence and lack of attention toward government's coveting and stealing.

Beginning with the Levites, dishonest tweaks of Scripture and doctrine by “religious officials” have likely made the Bible covertly diabolical!

So many tyrannies and tyrants in Judeo-Christianity and Western Civilization point to fiendishly deviant “religious officials.”

“Church” is Orwellian. Know How!

“Orwellian” is an adjective describing the situation, idea, or societal condition that George Orwell identified as being destructive to the welfare of a free and open society. It connotes an attitude and a policy of control by propaganda, surveillance, misinformation, denial of truth, and manipulation of the past, including the “unperson” — a person whose past existence is expunged from the public record and memory, practiced by modern ^{Un}repressive governments. Often, this includes the circumstances depicted in his novels, particularly Nineteen Eighty-Four. (From “Orwellian” at Wikipedia.com, emphasis added.)

Know what the “Unpersons” of Judeo-Christianity are!

George Orwell described the “unperson” as being “totally vaporized - erased from existence in the past, the present, and in the universe” by oppressive governmental authority.

In the context of Judeo-Christianity, an “unperson” is not a person at all. The “unpersons” that religious and government officials have sought to have Judeo-Christian society exterminate and forget are the Commandments to not covet, steal, or bear false witness – which need to be honestly and righteously applied by “We the People” to both religion and government in order to free slaves like the Exodus began. If your “church” is not studying Levitical and Orwellian tyranny, it is Orwellian tyranny!

The Levitical and Rabbinical “Traditions” Cunningly Protect “Religious Authority.”

The Levitical Tradition and its later successor, the Rabbinical Tradition, have worked hard to excuse Aaron, the Levites in particular, and Israel in general for molding and worshipping the Golden Calf of Exodus 32. In very outlandish fashion, both "traditions" have taken one single verse, Exodus 12:38, and used it to extenuate circumstances to minimize their own historical connections to the molding of the Golden Calf.

Exodus 12:38 reads, "A mixed multitude went up with them also, and flocks and herds—a great deal of livestock (NKJV)."

Both the Levitical and Rabbinical "traditions" build upon the idea of the "mixed multitude" that is mentioned in Exodus 12:38. They interpret and portray the meaning of "a mixed multitude" to an extreme extent that claims that Egyptian “trouble-makers” accompanied the Israelites out of Egypt and agitated the Israel’s tribes to force Aaron to mold the Golden Calf and worship it. (Those Egyptians must have been convincing trouble-makers! Haha!)

To again add "insult to injury," modern Rabbinical tradition still asserts, without proof, that the Tribe of Levi did not participate at all with molding the Golden Calf or worshipping it. Rabbinical tradition also "conveniently" forgets about the Levitical Curse from Genesis 49:5-7. Isn't that interesting??

In a straightforward reading of Exodus and Numbers, it is easy to conclude that the Levites were still as bad after the Exodus as they were reported to be in Genesis 49:5-7. Supporting honesty was not often their thing, but maintain power was over “40 Years in the Desert.” Also, as Aaron was a Levite, it is highly plausible that the the Levites forced Aaron to mold the Golden Calf for worship. Exodus 32 indicates that all tribes worshipped the Golden Calf, but the close ties that the Levites had to Moses and Aaron lend rationale for the Levites perhaps being the most intentioned for the crime.

NEXT: Know Why "Church Officials" Are So Fond of the Levites!

Christian "clergy" often have a general fondness for Israel's Levitical Priesthood, no matter the amount of tyranny or despotism that the Levites either caused or cunningly excused.

Protecting the "mystique" of "religious authority" has been supreme and of utmost "tradition" for almost all "church officials."

OMG!

The Tribe of Levi Sought Adulation, Praise, and Power - Just Like the Modern Religious "Establishment" Still Does!

Even more evidence against the Levites' reputation appears after Moses returned from the mountain the first time. Aaron reminded Moses by saying "You know the people, that they are evil (Exodus 32:22)." Up until that time, ONLY the Levites and the Simeons had been considered "evil" by reputation in both Hebrew scripture and society. As the Simeons were a lesser influential tribe than the Levites and both Moses and Aaron were Levites, Aaron was most likely referring to the Levites as the people who Moses already knew (past tense) as being evil and thus likely the most influential tribe in the rebellion of making the golden calves. Modern clergy often evade these points of criticism against their ministerial "prototypes."

Just After Getting the Commandment to Not Murder, Moses Ordered Levites to Murder Other Israelites. But Why!

When Moses returned the first time with the Ten Commandments, he had a supernatural “inspired-glow” upon his face. It is highly difficult to believe that he would choose then to murder Israelite Hebrews who posed no military threat - or especially if they had not been presented yet with the Ten Commandments. Moses would himself have been breaking one of the new Commandments - the Commandment to not murder.

So, the question must be asked, “What caused Moses to order the murders of Israelites anyway?”

More on the next page...

Just after getting the Commandment from God to not murder, Moses dared the Tribe of Levi to break it.

BUT WHY?

THE GIST

THE CURSE Page 29

The Reason that the Levites were open to murdering other Hebrews was that they sought power by becoming a “Priesthood.” Their fierce reputation from Genesis 49:5-7 is what caused other tribes to not seek the priesthood, thus making the Levites appear as the only “loyal” tribe. (“Read between the lines” and remember who had much time to embellish themselves in Scripture – the LEVITES!)

The Bloody Mob of LEVI

Upon seeing the Hebrew rebellion and hearing from Aaron about the “evilness of the people (Exodus 32:22),” Moses must have had an idea of “who” was most responsible for the rebellion – i.e. his own cunning Tribe of Levi. Moses knew that the Tribe of Levi already had an intimidating reputation that had long been recorded by the Hebrews (Genesis 49:5-7) and that the tribe was likely seeking opportunity to gather power unto itself – first by using Aaron to make a golden calf and then by swiftly responding in high numbers to Moses’ call of “Whoever is on the Lord’s side—come to me! (Exodus 32:26)” after Moses had again regained the political upper-hand against the rebellion. Most plausibly, considering both the Levitical Curse (Genesis 49:5-7) and the Levites’ tribal ties to both Moses and Aaron, the heavy response by the Tribe of Levi to Moses’ call of “Whoever is on the Lord’s side—come to me! (Exodus 32:26)” likely intimidated other tribes into not responding.

When Moses saw that only the Tribe of Levi had responded to his call of “Whoever is on the Lord’s side—come to me! (Exodus 32:26)”, it presented Moses with an opportunity to subdue the otherwise trouble-making tribe by challenging them to do something that he did not really expect them to do – thereby taming the tribe by having it reveal its own cowardice. Moses challenged the Levites to kill their own Hebrew brothers, companions, and neighbors (Exodus 32:27).” Moses’ challenge was however taken up by the power-hungry Levites, resulting in the Tribe ascending in treachery to Israel’s “Priesthood” would cause the tyranny of “40 years in the desert” and kill an Honest Promised Land from rising – all because of Moses’ own hasty words. LESSON: Be careful when challenging a mob to do evil when it is seeking power, even as a trick, because it could!

Levitical “Religious Authority” Gave Israel 40 Lost Years in the Desert and then 3,500 Years of Orwellian Tyranny to the World!

Following the events of Exodus 32:26-29, which effectively positioned the Levites as “Ruling Establishment,” the new “Levitical Priesthood” increased its use of intimidating “religious authority” to coercively sanction ever increasing amounts of deceitful “bureaucracy” in both religion and government. This led to “tradition” of having the Commandments about not coveting and not stealing to be institutionally forsaken - first in ancient Israel and then also later in Judah, the Roman Empire, and forward into the 21st Century.

NO GOLDEN RULE of the LEVITES! PROPHETS HAD TO COME!

QUESTION: Why were prophets needed to rebuke Israel’s officials in both government and religion?

ANSWER: It is because the priests were deceitfully crony with government, and they leveraged “religion” for doing “ministry” by the easiest and most profitable means available. Honoring the Exodus and aiming for an Honest Promised Land did not happen. Sadly, Israel embraced donning “authority” rather than honesty.

Bad priests, bad judges, and bad kings reigned in Israel, leading civilization down a troublesome path of bad “government” ever since. Ironically, Israel and “church” still need the writings of George Orwell, Ayn Rand, and Frank R. Hard Lessons for Churchgoers

The Biblical Story again and again reveals hard lessons for ordinary “churchgoers.”

The lessons are that (1) you must manage your religion at the deepest levels or eventually “traditions” will be used to manage and control you – and (2) “religious officials” seek adulation, praise, and power by the easiest means available!

Jesus warned about “traditions,” saying in Mark 7:13, “Making the Word of God of no effect by your tradition which you have handed down: and many such things do you!”

ORWELL, RAND & WALLACE “1984”

Multitudes of tyrannies, tyrants, and despots galore have ruled over 3,500 years of “Judeo-Christian” history because of the Levitical Curse (Genesis 49:5-7). “Religious officials” who snub George Orwell, Ayn Rand, & Frank R. Wallace for being atheists ironically protect Levitical tradition that sabotages both the Exodus and an Honest Promised Land.

Unlike famous writings by Orwell, Rand, and Wallace, “ministry” rarely analyzes how “Establishment” has used religion and government to covet & steal.

If your preachers are not against Orwellian tyranny, they are Orwellian tyranny!

If your “preachers” will not examine Orwellian tyranny in the Biblical Stories (OT and NT) and in Christian history, then find a new preacher.

The Gospel would be better spread by people who diligently keep “Establishment” honest.

Religious Officials Are The Craftiest of Money Changers

They slyly make government's coveting and stealing "religiously acceptable" and then they get benefits from government!

Beware when officials in government and religion endorse each other's "authority."

Religion itself forsakes the temporal realm when it fails to remind government to be honest!

Where's a Whip?

Jesus used a real whip at least once in a temple controlled by "religious officials."

Religious officials are still great money changers!

The People of God: Deceived Not by Witches and Demons but by Their Own “Authorities.”

END TAX BENEFITS FOR "CHURCH"

Since the Exodus, “religious officials” have given wide-ranging support to government far too often. The Levites (Israel’s “Priesthood”) engineered this “tradition” by using “religious authority” to dishonestly cajole for leverage that forced “acceptance” of government that covets and steals. In payment for their loyalty, the Levites gained crony benefits FROM Israel’s government. Eventually, prophets were sent to Israel because the “Priests” had become Orwellian partners with government and were not doing honest jobs. Such “Deep-State Establishment” has continued in many nations up through the present times.

The Levites were a special evil (Genesis 49:5-7). Their “religious influence” in the realm of government has helped dishonest judges (of the Old Testament), monarchs of all kinds, dictatorships, bureaucracies, and even modern democratic republics to more easily covet and steal in “official capacity,” especially when religious officials have slyly elevated Orwellian “authority” over honesty. Doctrine on “authority” abounds, but doctrine about honesty “not so much.”

The Curse of the Levites has entered into the 21st Century, where it is embodied and practiced by “religious officials” who receive either direct or indirect funding (i.e. tax benefits) from government. As consequence, and virtually as tradition, “church” has chiefly supported individual rights only so long as such rights do not interfere with the state/government. This “arrangement” protects the special benefits that the state gives to “religion.” “Church” will not be honest about government’s dishonest tyranny of coveting and stealing until “church” itself is taxed – which would truly make “church” more like Jesus, wouldn’t it?

I said, “Do not judge by appearances, but judge with right judgment.” (John 7:24, NRS)

BUT APPARENTLY EVERYONE ONLY REMEMBERED THE “DO NOT JUDGE” PART!

Tax Church!

WHAT IS IT ABOUT TAXES??

When Jesus Said to “Pay Taxes,” He Did Not Mean to Ignore Bad Government or to “Let It Off-the-Hook.”

When “church” is untaxed, it heeds the needs of the state.

When “church” is taxed, honesty like Jesus had could become its sharp weapon! JESUS’ PAID TAXES!

JESUS PAID TAXES

Modern priests/pastors, who “minister” in the religious wake of the Levites, assert that Jesus paid taxes to “honor authority.” THEY ARE FALSE! Jesus paid taxes to honor his own honesty – in contrast to the Establishment’s dishonesty. Jesus also paid taxes to block/befuddle the “authorities” from trying to close his ministry. Besides, Jesus’ ability to befuddle “authority” was part of his intended Passion!

Jesus never gave up free speech or honesty in exchange for a crony “501 (c)(3)” deal with government – as modern religious officials have engineered for themselves.

Under 501(c)(3), churches are crony corporations. The root words for “corporation” are “corpus” which means “dead” and “oratio” which means “speak.” Hence “Dead Speak.” (That fits well!)

Instead of being like Jesus and valuing honesty, “church” is manipulated by cunning “leaders” to fall in line with dishonest “Establishment.”

Like the Levites of old, Genesis 49:5-7, modern “religious officials” claim to be “doing good” when they are instead advancing tyranny.

“Church” Critically Abandoned Honesty About Government in 1954

Read “501c3 Facts” by Peter Kershaw

Also see his book “In Caesar's Grip”

<http://hushmoney.org/501c3-facts.htm>

“Church” has been like a “waterboy” for government ever since incorporating under 501c3, with its “pails” of taxpaying churchgoers who “believe” that they are being “faithful” when not questioning the rampant dishonesty that steadily grows in front of their own eyes because of 501c3.

“Church” could claim its Constitutional rights, as outlined by Peter Kershaw’s information. However, at this point, CLERGY SECRETS (Warren Vitcenda) recommends that churches run as businesses for two reasons. (1) Jesus said to pay taxes. & (2) Paying taxes is great leverage for making “church” be honest about itself and dishonest government.

Over and Over Again in the Biblical Story, Prophets Had to Shore Up for the Ruinous Greed & Bureaucratic Laziness of the “Priests” that Sought Adulation, Praise, and Power by the Easiest Means Available, Beginning with the Levites.

--- Not much has changed. ---

“Levitical Ministry” has been a curse to the present.

- 1) Levitical “Priests” were Deceitfully Crony with the Coveting & Stealing Done by Orwellian “Establishment” Government.
- 2) Levitical “Priests” Engineered Easily Repetitive “Ministry” for Their Own Convenience and Profit.
- 3) Levitical “Priests” Repeatedly Watered-down Many Teachings, Including Many from the Prophets.
- 4) Levitical “Priests” Seemed to Forget Everything About Melchizedek’s Righteousness; Thus, They Hardly Honored Melchizedek or Abraham’s Offerings to Him.

Spot Religious Officials Who Betray the Priesthood of Melchizedek

According to Hebrews Chapter 7, Jesus' Priesthood was patterned "after the Order of Melchizedek." Melchizedek was a righteous King/Priest before the time of Abraham. He was neither Hebrew or Levite.

Melchizedek ruled righteously in religion and government. For millennia, Levitical styled religious officials seem to have forgotten about Melchizedek.

The "Order of Melchizedek" means "honest righteousness" and not just "taker of offerings" as many clergy emphasize.

Q: Why have religious officials not wanted the Commandments against coveting and stealing to be applied to government for the past 3,500 years???

A: Because they are "Levitical" and not "after the Order of Melchizedek."

Truly honest religion develops doctrine for reducing coveting and stealing, even by government. Where is that doctrine?

"Church" provides little if any of it.

The Devil's Ticket?

Lucifer Only Needs to Point Out the Massive Means of Coveting and Stealing Wielded by "Church and State."

THE DEVIL'S NEXT RISE TO POWER could look very righteous if is contrasted against the vast array of religious and government institutions which have wielded "power" for coveting and stealing by leveraging religion itself to embellish their own joint "authority."

Ever since the Levites and Israel's Elders reigned together after the Exodus, there has existed a cahoots between religion and government acting as mutual benefactors, with government giving protections and benefits to effectively buy the support of "religious officials." Consequently, it cannot be honestly denied that the Magna Carta, the Reformation, and even the American Revolution have been only marginally able to thwart "government" from being an agent for massive coveting and stealing. The Devil's way in!

EXAMPLE 1 – "THE DEVIL BE LIKE JESUS:" In contrast to "religious officials," Jesus was not bought-off by government protections or tax benefits. His ministry paid taxes so to not be seen as perhaps dishonestly in cahoots with government authority. The Devil could follow the same pattern set by Jesus, a patterns. Besides, who could ever imagine a celestial being ever being bought-off by human government anyway? LOL!

EXAMPLE 2 – "THE DEVIL BE LIKE JESUS:" Also being like Jesus, the Devil too could make himself be unpopular with the "Establishment" represented by religion or government. For many, he would be viewed in heroic terms for his correct honesty about dishonest religion and government.

THE GIST

THE UPSHOT Page 45

The major problem for temporal "officials" in both religion and government at the time of the Devil's rise could be that the Devil will be absolutely HONEST and CORRECT about their ORWELLIAN tyrannies. Their power will dissolve around them and then Lucifer will easily ascend to power in a BLAZE OF RIGHTEOUSNESS.

Ironically, the Devil's rise could inspire new Bible study. Bible study will transform it into more of a reflective learning about how stealthy Judeo-Christian ministry sacrificed the honesty meant for the Promised land to instead prescriptively teach to have "faith" that does not closely examine the deceitful coveting and stealing means invented by "authorities."

The Full Essence of the Promised Land was Possible.
It was though most dependent on honesty, not authority.

"Authority" has most often hounded against liberty and freedom, rambling to oppose them through ancient Israel, Judah, the Roman Empire, into the present times. Rather than becoming a divinely fruitful Promised Land and refuge from Egypt, the conquering of the Land of Canaan by the Hebrews became more and more a task inspired by the need of the Levites and Elders to have conquest rather than to plant the full essence of the Promised Land.

How else would so much tyranny been made standard across Judeo-Christianity other than by means of religious doctrine consistently elevating authority above honesty so as to give as much free reign to despots as possible?

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

I have known Warren Vitcenda for 12 years. He served as an intern at Fron Lutheran Church in Starbuck, Minnesota for one year while I was serving as a pastor. I was his supervising pastor. Along with myself as his supervisor, Warren also met regularly with our internship committee. We were all impressed with his growth during the year that he was with us. He was involved in preaching, teaching, hospital visitation, counseling and a variety of other ministries during that year. He was especially gifted in the area of teaching. His sermons were well prepared and very in depth about the scriptures. His Bible study teaching was also well organized and solid. The internship year is a time when students are able to practice what they have learned at the seminary plus learn what it is like to be a pastor. For all practical reasons Warren was a pastor at our church. People responded to his ministry amongst us in a very generous way because that is the way they saw him too. He has a welcoming spirit about him that invites openness.

On a personal note I think Warren would make a wonderful pastor. He has a heart for the church and the preaching of the Word. He is a good friend and is committed to his relationships. Warren is also not afraid to stand up for what is the truth in today's spongy society. I would be glad to recommend him for ministry in whatever setting the church would call him into. Any questions please call me.
