The People of God: Deceived Not by Witches and Demons but by Their Own “Authorities.”

END TAX BENEFITS FOR "CHURCH"

Since the Exodus, “blank check” support has been given to “government” by “religion” far too often. The Levites (Israel’s “Priesthood”) engineered this “tradition” by using “religious authority” to dishonestly cajole leverage for forcing acceptance of government that covets and steals. In payment for their loyalty, the Levites gained crony benefits FROM Israel’s government. Eventually, prophets were sent to Israel because the “Priests” were Orwellian partners with government and not doing their jobs. Such “Deep-State Establishment” has continued in many nations up through the present times.

The Levites were a special evil (Genesis 49:5-7). Their Orwellian influence in the realm of religion has helped dishonest Judges (of ancient Israel), monarchs of all kinds, dictatorships, bureaucracies, and even democratic republics to covet and steal much easier “in official capacity” when the “importance” of “authority” has been slyly elevated by “religious officials” over truthful honesty. Doctrine on “authority” abounds, but “not so much” doctrine about honesty.

The Curse of the Levites has entered into the 21st Century, where it is embodied and practiced by “religious officials” who receive either direct or indirect funding (i.e. tax benefits) from government. As consequence, and virtually as tradition, “church” has chiefly supported individual rights only so long as the state is not interfered with – including the special benefits that the state gives to “religion.” “Church” will not be honest about government’s dishonest tyranny of coveting and stealing until “church” itself is taxed – which would truly make it “more like Jesus.”

I said, “Do not judge by appearances, but judge with right judgment.” (John 7:24, NRS)

BUT APPARENTLY EVERYONE ONLY REMEMBERED THE “DO NOT JUDGE” PART!

THE GIST

A Biblical Moral Observation & Lesson:

“Religious officials” have long had staunch doctrine about “authority” but “not so much” (i.e. hardly anything) to say in sermons or otherwise about good honest government that does not covet or steal – and especially not much about the fusion of religion and government as “Establishment.”

HAVE YOU NOTICED? “Church” has supported the rights of the individual only so long as they do not interfere with the state. This is real “Deep-State.” That's the lesson.

Jesus' Ministry Paid Taxes Because it Increases His Perceived Honesty. This is Unlike Subsequent “Ministries” that Have Paid No Taxes and Act Evermore Crony with Government!

What's This All About?

Religious Officials are Sly Masters, Not "Servants"

The Tribe of Levi itself was a special evil (Gen. 49: 5-7). Its "ministry" kept Israel "in the desert" for 40 years after the Exodus. It has also been the "traditional" source of the Orwellian cronyism between religion and government over the past 3,500 years.

Levitical "ministry" has "failed," by design, to develop doctrine that deeply validates the Commandments to not covet, steal, or bear false witness – especially regarding government's observance of those Commandments. Since shortly after the Exodus, when Israel's new freedom was quickly extinguished by its own officials, Levitical styled "religion" has colluded with government to leverage Orwellian "Establishment" as a "Deep State."

Tyranny's Greatest Ally has been Levitical

The Dishonest Leverage of the Levites:

The Levites leveraged their “religious authority” to help “government” slyly covet & steal by the easiest means available in exchange for government providing special status and/or crony benefits to “religious officials.”

Even now in the 21st Century, “religious officials” of the UNTAXED “church” continue their wicked forsaking of the GOLDEN RULE as they place government’s coveting and stealing above honesty. They provide no honest “ministry” that protects people from the “Establishment.” If “religious authorities” honored the Golden Rule, their “ministries” would pay taxes, like Jesus said to do, instead of religious officials being government’s most loyal media pawns.

Religious officials ought to cultivate doctrine that encourages honesty in government, but since they do not other sources must be found. The many books by Dr. Frank R. Wallace that discuss honesty and authority are highly recommended, including Wallace’s early study titled “POKER – A Guaranteed income for Life by Using the Advanced Concepts of Poker.” CHECK THEM ALL OUT!

RELIGIOUS VIPERS

Make Religious Officials Honest About Their Levitical Orwellian “Establishment.”

The honesty of people in the pews has more real faith and authority in it than the intimidating Orwellian/Levitical “ministry” used by self-glorifying “religious officials.”

COMMENTARY

ABOUT SLY COMMENTARIES

Although the Tribe of Levi was a special evil (Gen 49: 5-7) and is responsible for seeding many dishonest “traditions” of Orwellian tyranny in both religion and government over the past 3,500 years, it has still been glorified in many reviews and commentaries by many religious officials (but not all). It is evident that such writers want their adulations for the Tribe to accrue also to themselves as they know that they benefit from Levitical “Establishment.”

However, for the reasons outlined on the next pages, any glorification of the Tribe of Levi should be looked at with suspicion. The Tribe of Levi, at the time of its “calling” in Exodus 32:26-29, had just likely been the most influential tribe that caused Aaron to make the golden calves for worship. The tribe also gathered to defy the reasons for it being divided in Genesis 49:5-7.

THE GIST

GIST Page 8 of 28

The Evils of the Tribe of Levi

1. The Tribe of Levi was a special EVIL! (Genesis 49:5-7)
2. The Tribe of Levi Became Israel's "Priesthood" Under Rather Very Suspicious Circumstances.
3. The Tribe/Priesthood of Levi Started the "Tradition" of Religious Officials Supporting Tyranny by Being "Blind, Deaf, and Dumb" about Dishonest Government.

#1 of 3: The Tribe of Levi, the unique and cunning "Professional Priesthood" of ancient Israel, had evil roots - roots that eventually infected traditions of "ministry" with Orwellian goals across millennia!

Genesis 49:5-7 (NKJV)

5 "Simeon and Levi are brothers; Instruments of cruelty are in their dwelling place.

6 Let not my soul enter their council; Let not my honor be united to their assembly; For in their anger they slew a man, And in their self-will they hamstrung an ox.

7 Cursed be their anger, for it is fierce; And their wrath, for it is cruel! I will divide them in Jacob and scatter them in Israel.

Seeds of Deceitful "Religious Authority," which had no "GOLDEN RULE," were Dwelling Early in the Tribe of Levi!

THE GIST

GIST Page 9 of 28

#2 of 3: The “Professional Priesthood” was originally “chartered/ordained” when the Levites murdered family members and neighbors – even after receiving the Commandment to not murder!

Exodus 32:26-29. (NKJV)

26 then Moses stood in the entrance of the camp, and said, “Whoever is on the Lord’s side—come to me!” And all the sons of Levi gathered themselves together to him. 27 And he said to them, “Thus says the Lord God of Israel: ‘Let every man put his sword on his side, and go in and out from entrance to entrance throughout the camp, and let every man kill his brother, every man his companion, and every man his neighbor.’” 28 So the sons of Levi did according to the word of Moses. And about three thousand men of the people fell that day. 29 Then Moses said, “Consecrate yourselves today to the Lord, that He may bestow on you a blessing this day, for every man has opposed his son and his brother.”

The Levites’ wicked treatment of “relatives and neighbors” has endured.

The “Priestly” Levites, who had no GOLDEN RULE, let ancient Israel’s government covet and steal. It is the root “tradition” from where modern “religious officials” receive inspiration for “going forth and doing likewise.”

THE GIST

GIST Page 10 of 28

The Tribe of Levi Sought Adulation, Praise, and Power - Just Like the Modern “Establishment” Still Does.

Exodus 32: 1 makes it clear that the entire nation of Israel, including the Tribe of Levi, was taking part in rebellion during Moses' time on the mountain. However, as both Moses and Aaron were Levites, it can be inferred that the Tribe of Levi was highly instrumental in encouraging Aaron to mold the golden calves and fuel rebellion in the first place. Such trouble-making by the Tribe of Levi makes sense as it reflects their ruthless and intimidating reputation that had come down through time among the Hebrews – as recorded in Genesis 49:5-7.

Even more evidence against the Levites appears after Moses returned from the mountain the first time (Exodus 32:22) when Aaron reminded Moses by saying “You know the people, that they are evil.” The “evil people” would have most likely been their own Tribe of Levi.

Why Did Moses Order Murders Just After Getting the Commandment to Not Murder?

When Moses returned with the Ten Commandments, he had a supernatural “inspired-glow” upon his face. It is highly difficult to believe that he would choose to murder people who posed no military threat, were members of his own Tribe of Levi, or especially if they had not been presented with the Ten Commandments yet. Moses would himself have been breaking one of the new Commandments - the Commandment to not murder. So, the question must be asked, “What caused Moses to order murders anyway?” To begin answering that question, further examine the Tribe of Levi on the next pages.

Continue to the following page...

THE GIST

GIST Page 11 of 28

(Continuing from the previous page.)

Just after receiving the Commandment to not murder, Moses dared the Tribe of Levi to Break it. BUT WHY?

The Bloody Mob of LEVI

Upon seeing the Hebrew rebellion and hearing from Aaron, Moses must have had an idea of “who” was most responsible for the rebellion – i.e. that being his own cunning Tribe of Levi. Moses knew that the Tribe of Levi already had an intimidating reputation that had been long recorded by the Hebrews (Genesis 49:5-7) and that it was likely seeking opportunity to gather power unto itself – first by using Aaron to make golden calves and then by responding in high numbers to Moses’ call of “Whoever is on the Lord’s side—come to me!” once Moses had regained the political upper hand again. The heavy response by the Tribe of Levi to Moses’ call likely intimidated other tribes to not follow in immediate fashion.

When Moses saw that only the Tribe of Levi had responded to his call of “Whoever is on the Lord’s side—come to me!”, it presented Moses with an opportunity to subdue the trouble-making tribe by challenging those who responded to do something for gaining power that he did not really expect them to do - thereby subduing the tribe by revealing their cowardice. Moses challenged the Levitical responders to kill their own family members (sons and brothers) and also neighbors. Moses’ challenge to such murdering was however taken up by those from Levi who responded, resulting in their being “chartered/ordained” as the “Professional Priesthood” because of Moses’ own hasty words. LESSON: Be careful when challenging a mob to not do evil when it is seeking power because it likely will!

LEVITICAL

“RELIGIOUS AUTHORITY”

It Gave Israel 40 Years in the Desert and then 3,500 Years of Orwellian “Tradition” to the World!

#3 of 3: Following the events of Exodus 32:26-29 that seeded Orwellian “Establishment” in Israel’s early religion and government, the new “Establishment” increased the use of intimidating “religious authority” to coercively sanction and “bless” ever increasing amounts of deceitful “bureaucracy” in both religion and government. This allowed the institutionalized ignoring and forsaking of the Commandments to not covet or steal - first in ancient Israel and then later in Judah, the Roman Empire, and throughout “Church History” into the 21st Century!

Tyranny has been assembled in the pews!

Religious Officials

Spot Religious Officials Who Betray the Priesthood of Melchizedek

According to Hebrews Chapter 7, Jesus' Priesthood was patterned "after the Order of Melchizedek." Melchizedek was a righteous King/Priest before the time of Abraham. He was neither Hebrew or Levite.

Melchizedek ruled righteously in religion and government. For millennia, Levitical styled religious officials seem to have forgotten about Melchizedek.

The "Order of Melchizedek" means "honest righteousness" and not just "taker of offerings" as many clergy emphasize.

Q: Why have religious officials not wanted the Commandments against coveting and stealing to be applied to government for the past 3,500 years???

A: Because they are "Levitical" and not "after the Order of Melchizedek."

Truly honest religion develops doctrine for reducing coveting and stealing, even by government. Where is that doctrine?

Why “Orwellian?”

“Orwellian” is an adjective describing the situation, idea, or societal condition that George Orwell identified as being destructive to the welfare of a free and open society. It connotes an attitude and a policy of control by propaganda, surveillance, misinformation, denial of truth, and manipulation of the past, including the “unperson” — a person whose past existence is expunged from the public record and memory, practiced by modern repressive governments. Often, this includes the circumstances depicted in his novels, particularly Nineteen Eighty-Four. (“Orwellian” definition from Wikipedia.com, emphasis added.)

Know the “Unpersons” of Judeo-Christianity!

George Orwell described the “unperson” as being “totally vaporized - erased from existence in the past, the present, and in the universe” by oppressive governmental authority.

In the context of Judeo-Christian history, an Orwellian “unperson” is not a person at all. The “unpersons” that Judeo-Christian officials have sought to exterminate from functional existence in society, particularly regarding “authority” in both religion and government, are the libertarian and freedom enhancing Commandments that say to not covet, steal, or bear false witness.

The same Orwellian tyranny that cursed and even destroyed nations such as ancient Israel, Judah, and the Roman Empire - and many others since - is still parlayed by dishonestly “devout” officials who “serve” by using both religion and government to echo the oppressive rule wielded by ancient Egypt.

Tax “Church.”

Jesus Did Not Say to Forever Ignore Bad Government or to Easily Let It “Off the Hook.”

Jesus said, "Pay Taxes" because it elevated his perceived honesty. As Jesus valued honesty, it also meant that HONESTY should be valued by BELIEVERS as a standard when paying taxes so that such honesty could then be leveraged for pursuing an honest society - like Jesus did.

"Church" itself has however failed to be honest with its tax-exempt 501(c)(3) status which gives “religious officials” excuse to easily let government covet and steal.

Jesus though never gave up free speech or honesty in exchange for a crony “501 (c)(3)” deal with government – as modern religious officials have engineered for themselves.

Under 501(c)(3), churches are crony corporations. The root words for “corporation” are "corpus" which means “dead” and "oratio" which means “speak.”

Hence "Dead Speak.” (That fits!)

Honesty has been dead in religion concerning government’s coveting and stealing.

THE GIST

GIST Page 16 of 28

Jesus Did Not Include Members of the “Levitical Priesthood” in his Close Circles. Follow that Example!

The shrewd “Levitical Priesthood” presses on when modern religious officials seek crony ties with dishonest government. It is a negative “biblical” tradition/pattern.

The Tribe of Levi was scattered in Genesis due to its enduring evil ways (Gen 49:5-7). Moses erred in choosing and regrouping his own derelict tribe as a “Priesthood” as it went on in the Biblical Story to deceitfully fashion Orwellian-styled “religious authority” that colluded with government in establishing tyrannies of “tradition” to bureaucratically covet and steal. As “Establishment,” the Judges, Kings, AND Levitical religious officials of Israel enjoyed wielding power.

Honest Religion Operates by the GOLDEN RULE.

An honest church would pay taxes to “Caesar,” like Jesus said to do.

If church paid taxes, its “religious officials” would avoid being tempted to be pawns of government.

Religious officials would stay honest toward and with the people.

The “traditions” of the Levites have cunningly cajoled God’s People (Hebrews and Gentiles) to “faithfully” not question “too much” about dishonest authority.

“Church” has been like a “waterboy” for government ever since incorporating under 501c3, with its “pails” of taxpaying churchgoers who “believe” that they are being “faithful” when not questioning the rampant dishonesty that steadily grows in front of their own eyes because of 501c3.

”Church” could claim its Constitutional rights, as outlined by Peter Kershaw’s information. However, at this point, CLERGY SECRETS (Warren Vitcenda) recommends that churches run as businesses for two reasons. (1) Jesus said to pay taxes. & (2) Paying taxes is great leverage for making “church” interested in being honest about dishonest government.

THE GIST

Did Jesus say to be quiet & ignore bad government? NO!
Dishonestly timid religious officials seem to “believe” he did.

Church has had many sermons about coveting and stealing by individuals, but not so many (i.e. few) about government doing so.

Jesus wouldn't imply that coveting and stealing is righteous when done through government.

Read the Bible differently, especially the patterns when “religious authority” had no GOLDEN RULE.

501(c)(3) has become "Uber-Doctrine" for crony “ministries” of the “Establishment” over the past 50+ years.
How's that worked out, hmmm? (Cynically speaking)

Only Events Such As:

1) The Magna Carta (1215 A.D.),

2) The Reformation (16th Century), &

3) The American Revolution (1776) have broken the diabolical ties of "authority" that have linked a long and sinister cooperation between religion and government – ties which have allowed religion and government to collude as deceitful "Establishment." Across the ages, "religious officials" have been avid supporters of "Establishment" power and status quo.

When sin becomes the leveraging of "religious authority" to slyly advocate for coveting and stealing by government – then that describes diabolical Orwellian tyranny!

The Futures of “501(c)(3)” and Social Security

501c3: The provisions of “501(c)(3)” are a convenient reason for religious officials to break their ministerial oaths and say only what government wants them to say. Religious officials will not be honest until their ties to such things as “501(c)(3)” end.

Clergy will likely continue to defend 501(c)(3) even more than the Ten Commandments because they love and enjoy their cronyism with dishonest government even more than church itself being honest. In this stealthy foundation of Orwellian “Establishment,” clergy/pastors are “happy” to support the rights of the individual only so long as they do not interfere with the state.

Then there is Social Security...

Religious officials (i.e. pastors) have the option to opt out of Social Security under certain circumstances.

Watch for many pastors to have “spiritual changes” that will be quickly followed by sly votes at church conventions which support religious officials with having new options for opting out of paying Social Security taxes (but still getting benefits). The Social Security Trust Fund goes broke/bust after 2033. Avoiding that pitfall as much as possible will likely become very “spiritual” for religious officials.

Rendering Unto Caesar: Was Jesus A Socialist?

A fabulous article, written by Lawrence W. Reed in 2015, called “Rendering Unto Caesar: Was Jesus A Socialist?” does a delightful job at closely examining the phrase “Rendering unto Caesar” from Matthew 22:15–22 and Mark 12:13–17.

Reed shows, in numerous scriptures which relate to Jesus, that “The fact is, one can scour the Scriptures with a fine-tooth comb and find nary a word from Jesus that endorses the forcible redistribution of wealth by political authorities. None, period.”

Just a few examples...

In Matthew 5:17–20 Jesus declares, “Do not think that I have come to abolish the Law or the Prophets; I have not come to abolish them but to fulfill them.” (NIV) Lawrence Reed adds, “He (Jesus) was not saying, ‘Whatever laws the government passes, I’m all for.’ He was speaking specifically of the Mosaic law (primarily the Ten Commandments) and the prophecies of his own coming.” - Most importantly, for consideration here, are the Commandments to not covet or steal.

In Luke 12:13–15, Reed points out, Jesus is confronted with a redistribution request from a man who wanted his brother to “divide an inheritance with him.” Jesus responded with “‘Man, who appointed me a judge or an arbiter between you?’” (NIV)

In the story of the Good Samaritan from Luke 10:29–37, Reed points out that “He did not say, ‘Write a letter to the emperor’ or ‘Go see your social worker’ and walk on. If he had done that, he would more likely be known today as the “Good-for-nothing Samaritan” — if he were remembered at all.” Reed concludes saying “There’s no suggestion that the Samaritan ‘owed’ anything to the man in need or that it was the duty of a distant politician to help out with other people’s money.”

THE GIST

GIST Page 22 of 28

Reed also adds this wise observation in his article, “...sometimes a person becomes wealthy wholly or in part because of his political connections. He secures special favors or subsidies from government, or uses government to disable his competitors. No consistently logical thinker who favors liberty and property rights, whether he's Christian or not, supports such practices. They are forms of theft, and their source is political power — the very debilitating thing that progressives and socialists advocate more of.”

Concerning the Book of Acts, Reed writes “On closer inspection, however, it turns out that those early Christians did not sell everything they had and were not commanded or expected to do so. They continued to meet in their own private homes, for example.”

Reed points out that “supply and demand” is a factor in Matthew 20:1–16 where the landlord had to increase the hourly pay at the end of the day in order to get a job done.

In the Parable of the Talents (Matthew 25:14–30), regardless if “talents” are skills or actual money, Reed says that the concepts of contract, profit, and private property are well maintained. He further writes, “Of several men in the story, the one who takes his money and buries it is reprimanded while the one who invests and generates the largest return is applauded and rewarded.”

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

I have known Warren Vitcenda for 12 years. He served as an intern at Fron Lutheran Church in Starbuck, Minnesota for one year while I was serving as a pastor. I was his supervising pastor. Along with myself as his supervisor, Warren also met regularly with our internship committee. We were all impressed with his growth during the year that he was with us. He was involved in preaching, teaching, hospital visitation, counseling and a variety of other ministries during that year. He was especially gifted in the area of teaching. His sermons were well prepared and very in depth about the scriptures. His Bible study teaching was also well organized and solid. The internship year is a time when students are able to practice what they have learned at the seminary plus learn what it is like to be a pastor. For all practical reasons Warren was a pastor at our church. People responded to his ministry amongst us in a very generous way because that is the way they saw him too. He has a welcoming spirit about him that invites openness.

On a personal note I think Warren would make a wonderful pastor. He has a heart for the church and the preaching of the Word. He is a good friend and is committed to his relationships. Warren is also not afraid to stand up for what is the truth in today's spongy society. I would be glad to recommend him for ministry in whatever setting the church would call him into. Any questions please call me.
