Honesty in Religion Has Long Been Dead!

Especially About Government's Coveting & Stealing

Have faith that Jesus would speak, even perhaps through you!

A lot of bad government can be studied in the Bible; It too is also the Word of God. Religious officials (i.e. pastors, priests, "clergy") have however cunningly used their "authority" to cajole and shame church-goers into not questioning much about "rulers" and government or about the many shrewd ties that have existed between religion and government - even those evident in the Bible.

Religious officials slyly "minister" that government's coveting and stealing is "ok" and even "righteous." Acceptance, not questioning, is the "Spirituality/Faith" that they conjecture about. However, religious officials have, in that way, used "church" as leverage to support despots (glory-seeking politicians/officials) in exchange for religious officials receiving some favored status or benefits from the political "powers that be," regardless of how dishonestly Orwellian it makes both religion and government.

Would Jesus really do the same? Would Jesus say nothing about government's Orwellian "means," even if he had to contrast with the often "blind/deaf/ & dumb" attitudes that most religious officials have regarding government's coveting and stealing?

“CHURCH”

What's This All About?

The Wicked “Ministry” of the Levitical Priesthood Still Curses “Judeo-Christianity.”

A major but little acknowledged biblical theme is “religious officials” getting special status and/or benefits from “rulers” or government in sly exchange for religious officials not preaching about (1) bad government or (2) how good government would not covet and steal. Verses related to such things are little examined for sermons and Bible study. (The Orwellian Matrix we live in.)

This Defines “Levitical”

The Tribe of Levi possessed a special evil of its own (Gen. 49: 5-7) that was not lost after the Exodus, as reflected in much cronyism between religion and government over the past 3,500 years. Levitical created “traditions” have “failed,” practically by design, to develop doctrine that deeply explains and validates the status of the Commandments to not covet, steal, or bear false witness – especially regarding government’s own observance of those Commandments. This has been the case since shortly after the Exodus when Israel’s new freedom was quickly extinguished by its own officials who colluded to leverage religion and government together as Orwellian “Establishment.”

Dishonest “church” that promotes much doctrine on “authority,” but lacks well developed doctrine about government’s mischievous & dishonest coveting and stealing ways, does not deserve offerings.

THE GIST

Page 6 of 28

Doctrine on Government Should Center on Honesty Far Ahead of "Authority," But Where Is It?

The Dishonest Levitical Religious Code: Leverage religion in crony ways to help government covet & steal in exchange for special status and/or benefits being given for religious officials.

Deviant “religious authority” took especially deep root when ancient Israel’s Old Testament Judges and the Tribe of Levi (religious officials) dishonestly “read between the lines” of the Ten Commandments to allow coveting and stealing by government. Religious officials were then rewarded in many ways by government over many following centuries – as leveraging “religious authority” became a sly and highly important enabler of government tyranny that covets, steals, and bears false witness. The Bible shows reveals bad examples. It is too bad cunning religion that creates dishonest "Establishment" with gov't is about the biggest.

In the 21st Century, “religious officials” of the untaxed “church” continue the wicked Levitical ways by forsaking the “Golden Rule” with their bogus de facto “theology” that supports government’s coveting and stealing. They provide no honest “ministry” that protects people from the “Establishment.” If “religious authority” honored the Golden Rule, it would show honesty as a standard of high importance by paying taxes, like Jesus said to do, instead of being government’s most loyal media pawn.

It is amazing that being dishonestly “blind” about government’s coveting and stealing is considered “ministry.” Notoriously, “church” has little doctrine on how “honesty” should impact government and its “coveting and stealing” practices. In consideration of that, books by Dr. Frank R. Wallace are highly recommended, including his early study on honesty and authority titled “POKER – A Guaranteed income for Life by Using the Advanced Concepts of Poker.” CHECK IT OUT!

COMMENTARY

ABOUT SLY COMMENTARIES

Although the Tribe of Levi was a special evil (Gen 49: 5-7) and is responsible for seeding many dishonest “traditions” of Orwellian tyranny in both religion and government over the past 3,500 years, it has still been glorified in many reviews and commentaries by many religious officials (but not all). It is evident that the writers seem to want their adulations of the Tribe to accrue also to themselves as many of them follow the “Levitical traditions” of the “Establishment.”

However, for the reasons outlined on the next pages, any glorification of the Tribe of Levi should be looked at with suspicion. The Tribe of Levi, at the time of its “calling” in Exodus 32:26-29, had just likely been the most influential tribe that made Aaron make the golden calves for worship. The tribe also gathered to defy the reasons for it being divided in Genesis 49:5-7.

- 3. The Tribe/Priesthood of Levi Started the "Tradition" of Religious Officials Supporting Tyranny by Being "Blind, Deaf, and Dumb" about Dishonest Government.

#1 of 3: The Tribe of Levi, the unique "Professional Priesthood" of ancient Israel, had evil roots - roots that eventually infected traditions of "ministry" with Orwellian intentions across the ages!

THE GIST

Page 9 of 28

#2 of 3: The “Professional Priesthood” was originally “chartered/ordained” when the Levites murdered family members and neighbors – even after receiving the Commandment to not murder!

Exodus 32:26-29. (NKJV)

26 then Moses stood in the entrance of the camp, and said, “Whoever is on the Lord’s side—come to me!” And all the sons of Levi gathered themselves together to him. 27 And he said to them, “Thus says the Lord God of Israel: ‘Let every man put his sword on his side, and go in and out from entrance to entrance throughout the camp, and let every man kill his brother, every man his companion, and every man his neighbor.’” 28 So the sons of Levi did according to the word of Moses. And about three thousand men of the people fell that day. 29 Then Moses said, “Consecrate yourselves today to the Lord, that He may bestow on you a blessing this day, for every man has opposed his son and his brother.”

The Levites’ wicked treatment of “relatives and neighbors” has endured.

The “Priestly” Levites, who had no GOLDEN RULE, let ancient Israel’s government covet and steal. It is the root “tradition” from where modern “religious officials” receive inspiration for “going forth and doing likewise.”

The Tribe of Levi Sought Adulation, Praise, and Power - Just Like the Modern “Establishment” Still Does.

Exodus 32: 1 makes it clear that the entire nation of Israel, including the Tribe of Levi, was taking part in rebellion during Moses' time on the mountain. However, as both Moses and Aaron were Levites, it can be inferred that the Tribe of Levi was highly instrumental in encouraging Aaron to mold the golden calves and fuel rebellion in the first place. Such trouble-making by the Tribe of Levi makes sense as it reflects their ruthless and intimidating reputation that had come down through time among the Hebrews – as recorded in Genesis 49:5-7.

Even more evidence appears after Moses returned from the mountain the first time, when in Exodus 32:22 Aaron reminded Moses by saying “You know the people, that they are evil.” The “evil people” would have included Moses' own Tribe of Levi – likely most of all!

Why Did Moses Order Murdering Just After Getting God's Commandment to Not Murder?

When Moses returned with the Ten Commandments, he had a supernatural “inspired-glow” upon his face. It is highly difficult to believe that he would choose to murder people who posed no military threat, were members of his own Tribe of Levi, or especially if they had not been presented with the Ten Commandments yet. Moses would himself have been breaking one of the new Commandments - the Commandment to not murder. So, the question must be asked, “What caused Moses to order murders anyway?” To begin answering that question, further examine the Tribe of Levi on the next pages.

Just After Receiving the Commandment to not Murder, Moses Dared the Tribe of Levi to Break It Anyway.
BUT WHY?

The Bloody Mob of LEVI

Upon seeing the Hebrew rebellion and hearing from Aaron, Moses must have had an idea of “who” was most responsible for the rebellion – i.e. that being his own cunning Tribe of Levi. Moses knew that the Tribe of Levi already had an intimidating reputation that had been long recorded by the Hebrews (Genesis 49:5-7) and that it was likely seeking opportunity to gather power unto itself – first by using Aaron to make golden calves and then by responding in high numbers to Moses’ call of “Whoever is on the Lord’s side—come to me!” once Moses had regained the political upper hand again. The heavy response by the Tribe of Levi to Moses’ call likely intimidated other tribes to not follow in immediate fashion.

When Moses saw that only the Tribe of Levi had responded to his call of “Whoever is on the Lord’s side—come to me!”, it presented Moses with an opportunity to subdue the trouble-making tribe by challenging those who responded to do something for gaining power that he did not really expect them to do - thereby subduing the tribe by revealing their cowardice. Moses challenged the Levitical responders to kill their own family members (sons and brothers) and also neighbors. Moses’ challenge to such murdering was however taken up by those from Levi who responded, resulting in their being “chartered/ordained” as the “Professional Priesthood” because of Moses’ own hasty words. LESSON: Be careful when challenging a mob to not do evil when it is seeking power because it likely will!

#3 of 3: Following the events of Exodus 32:26-29, which seeded Orwellian “Establishment” in early Israel’s religion and government, the new “Establishment” increased the coercive use of intimidating “religious authority” for sanctioning and “blessing” ever increasing amounts of forceful “bureaucracy” in both religion and government. This allowed the “institutional” ignoring and forsaking of the Commandments to not covet or steal - first in ancient Israel and then later in Judah, the Roman Empire, and throughout “Church History” into the 21st Century!

Jesus Did Not Include Members of the “Levitical Priesthood” in his Close Circles. Follow that Example!

The shrewd “Levitical Priesthood” marches on when modern religious officials seek crony ties with dishonest government. It is “biblical” in a quite negative fashion.

The Tribe of Levi was scattered in Genesis due to its enduring evil ways (Gen 49:5-7). Moses erred in choosing and regrouping his own derelict tribe as a “Priesthood” as it went on in the Biblical Story to deceitfully fashion Orwellian-styled “religious authority” that colluded with government in establishing tyrannies of “tradition” to bureaucratically covet and steal. As “Establishment,” the Judges, Kings, AND Levitical religious officials of Israel enjoyed wielding power.

Honest Religion Operates by the GOLDEN RULE.

According to the Golden Rule, honest church would pay taxes to “Caesar,” like Jesus said to do. If church paid taxes, it would then avoid having its “religious officials” tempted to be pawns of government. and they would stay honest toward and with the people.

The “traditions” of the Levites have cunningly kept Hebrews, Jews, and Gentiles “faithfully obedient” to not question dishonest authority.

Why “Orwellian?”

“Orwellian” is an adjective describing the situation, idea, or societal condition that George Orwell identified as being destructive to the welfare of a free and open society. It connotes an attitude and a policy of control by propaganda, surveillance, misinformation, denial of truth, and manipulation of the past, including the “unperson” — a person whose past existence is expunged from the public record and memory, practiced by modern repressive governments. Often, this includes the circumstances depicted in his novels, particularly Nineteen Eighty-Four. (“Orwellian” definition from Wikipedia.com, emphasis added.)

Know the “Unpersons” of Judeo-Christianity!

George Orwell described the “unperson” as being “totally vaporized - erased from existence in the past, the present, and in the universe” by oppressive governmental authority.

In the context of Judeo-Christian history, an Orwellian “unperson” is not a person at all. The “unpersons” that Judeo-Christian officials have sought to exterminate from functional existence in society, particularly regarding “authority” in both religion and government, are the libertarian and freedom enhancing Commandments that say to not covet, steal, or bear false witness.

The same Orwellian tyranny that cursed and even destroyed nations such as ancient Israel, Judah, and the Roman Empire - and many others since - is still parlayed by dishonestly “devout” officials who “serve” by using both religion and government to echo the oppressive rule wielded by ancient Egypt.

Tax “Church.”

Make it Honest!

Only a taxed church will be honest

Jesus Did Not Say to Forever Ignore Bad Government.

Jesus said, "Pay Taxes." As Jesus valued honesty, it meant that HONESTY should be set as a standard when paying taxes so that it could then be leveraged for peacefully pushing for honest government. "Church" itself has however failed such honesty, especially regarding its tax-exempt 501(c)(3) status/affiliation.

Jesus never gave up free speech or honesty in exchange for a crony “501 (c)(3)” deal with government – a deal that modern religious officials have engineered for themselves.

Under 501(c)(3), churches are crony corporations. The root words for “corporation” are "corpus" which means “dead” and "oratio" which means “speak.”

Hence "Dead Speak." (That fits!)

Honesty has been dead in religion concerning government’s coveting and stealing.

Identify Religious Officials NOT of Melchizedek

According to Hebrews Chapter 7, Jesus' Priesthood was patterned "after the Order of Melchizedek." Melchizedek was a righteous King/Priest before the time of Abraham. He was neither Hebrew or Levite.

Melchizedek ruled government righteously on Earth. Today's "Establishment" clergy, being crony Neo-Levites with government, seem to forget about that righteousness in their dealings with and about "government."

The "Order of Melchizedek" means "honest righteousness" and not "taker of offerings" as many clergy emphasize.

Why have modern clergy not wanted the Commandments against coveting and stealing applied to government for the past 3,500 years??? Answer: Because they are not of the Order of Melchizedek - as Jesus was/is.

A Biblical Moral Lesson:

“Church officials” have long had staunch doctrine about “authority” but “not so much” (i.e. hardly anything) to say in sermons or otherwise about good honest government that does not covet or steal.

Authority and honesty should have been closely linked doctrines since the Exodus and extended through the Biblical Story to Modern Times. Alas though, religious officials and government have colluded for millennia as a cunning “Establishment” which has aimed to covet, steal, and bear false witness by the easiest Orwellian means that their dishonest use of “authority” makes available to them.

“Church” has had many sermons about the sins of individuals, but “not so many” sermons (i.e. few) about the coveting and stealing done by means of slyly using government. Examine why! Make church “officials” honest. End the curse of dishonest Levitical authority in both religion and government!

Religious officials will not be honest about tyranny until ties such as “501(c)(3)” go away. Your pastors will defend 501(c)(3) more even than the Ten Commandments because they love their cronyism with dishonest government more.

Religious officials (i.e. pastors) have the option to opt out of Social Security. It is about more than just “religion,” it’s about bribery! ## Rendering Unto Caesar: Was Jesus A Socialist?

A fabulous article, written by Lawrence W. Reed in 2015, called “Rendering Unto Caesar: Was Jesus A Socialist?” does a delightful job at closely examining the phrase “Rendering unto Caesar” from Matthew 22:15–22 and Mark 12:13–17.

Reed shows, in numerous scriptures which relate to Jesus, that “The fact is, one can scour the Scriptures with a fine-tooth comb and find nary a word from Jesus that endorses the forcible redistribution of wealth by political authorities. None, period.”

Just a few examples...

In Matthew 5:17–20 Jesus declares, “Do not think that I have come to abolish the Law or the Prophets; I have not come to abolish them but to fulfill them.” (NIV) Lawrence Reed adds, “He (Jesus) was not saying, ‘Whatever laws the government passes, I’m all for.’ He was speaking specifically of the Mosaic law (primarily the Ten Commandments) and the prophecies of his own coming.” - Most importantly, for consideration here, are the Commandments to not covet or steal.

In Luke 12:13–15, Reed points out, Jesus is confronted with a redistribution request from a man who wanted his brother to “divide an inheritance with him.” Jesus responded with “‘Man, who appointed me a judge or an arbiter between you?’” (NIV)

In the story of the Good Samaritan from Luke 10:29–37, Reed points out that “He did not say, ‘Write a letter to the emperor’ or ‘Go see your social worker’ and walk on. If he had done that, he would more likely be known today as the “Good-for-nothing Samaritan” — if he were remembered at all.” Reed concludes saying “There’s no suggestion that the Samaritan ‘owed’ anything to the man in need or that it was the duty of a distant politician to help out with other people’s money.”

Reed also adds this wise observation in his article, “...sometimes a person becomes wealthy wholly or in part because of his political connections. He secures special favors or subsidies from government, or uses government to disable his competitors. No consistently logical thinker who favors liberty and property rights, whether he's Christian or not, supports such practices. They are forms of theft, and their source is political power — the very debilitating thing that progressives and socialists advocate more of.”

Concerning the Book of Acts, Reed writes “On closer inspection, however, it turns out that those early Christians did not sell everything they had and were not commanded or expected to do so. They continued to meet in their own private homes, for example.”

Reed points out that “supply and demand” is a factor in Matthew 20:1–16 where the landlord had to increase the hourly pay at the end of the day in order to get a job done.

In the Parable of the Talents (Matthew 25:14–30), regardless if “talents” are skills or actual money, Reed says that the concepts of contract, profit, and private property are well maintained. He further writes, “Of several men in the story, the one who takes his money and buries it is reprimanded while the one who invests and generates the largest return is applauded and rewarded.”
